Jesse Bell Attends Exclusive Conference for Financial Advisors

Ishpeming, Michigan (May 1, 2016)—Jesse Bell, President of Bell Financial in Ishpeming, Michigan, gathered with a group of prominent financial advisors at Commonwealth Financial Network®'s Summit Club conference, held May 1–5, 2016, at the Bacara Resort & Spa in Santa Barbara, California. Summit Club recognizes highly successful advisors based on annual production rankings among Commonwealth's nationwide network of more than 1,650 financial advisors.

A variety of business meetings and informative sessions were featured during the weeklong conference, where attendees gained compelling insights, best practices, and recommendations from industry leaders. Numerous networking sessions and opportunities for engaging with peers allowed like-minded advisors to connect and share ideas. Overall, the conference emphasized providing the highest level of service, value, and commitment to the participants' clients.

“We were pleased to host Jesse at our 2016 Summit Club conference,” said Wayne Bloom, CEO of Commonwealth. “Attending this event—adding value through participation and personal insights and exploring tools and strategies that empower Jesse to maintain a competitive advantage—is one of the many reasons he is among the most successful in the independent industry. We commend Jesse Bell for his unwavering focus on his clients' needs and commitment to their best interests.”
